High performance. Delivered.

A message from Pierre Nanterme

Video Transcript

Hello, I am Pierre Nanterme, and I am extremely pleased that you are joining Accenture. I have spent my entire career here, and I am very proud of this company.

Accenture is one of the best professional services organizations in the world. Here, you will have the opportunity to serve clients who are leaders in their industries, and help solve their most critical business issues. And you will work with talented Accenture colleagues around the globe.

Our people have great passion, energy and style. And, indeed, they make Accenture the special company it is. Together, we are focused on delivering high performance — the Accenture Way. This is all about how we innovate, collaborate, operate and deliver value for our clients, our business and each other. You will learn more about the Accenture Way on your first day with us.

Until then, I hope you are looking forward to the great opportunities in your career here.

I wish you all the best.
